NOTIFICATION

Whereas, the undersigned as DDO of Durgapur Government College has received a number of requests from large number of provisionally admitted 1st Semester students in the academic session 2020-2021 and from District administrative personnel for processing of Scholarship forms under different existing and new schemes and projects of Government of West Bengal; Whereas, it is the duty of a Government Institution to honour the directives of Smt. Mamata Banerjee, Hon'ble Chief Minister, Government of West Bengal regarding timely implementation of different Government scholarships, unique and unparalleled opportunities to the students under different schemes and projects of the Government of West Bengal in due time adhering to the deadlines;

Whereas, it is mandatory to check and verify the documents of newly admitted first semester students before the commencement of regular online and /or offline classes, the date of which will be announced in due time;

Accordingly, considering all the aforementioned state of affairs, the college authority has already verified and it is still found from office record that some of the provisionally admitted students have failed to comply with the deadlines in response to this Office Notification No. 668, dated 30-11-2020.
